Foreword

To everyone there are certain cherished memories of our high school career that will live on forever. They may be the highlights of our school life or near catastrophies, but in either case we present this our yearbook to serve as a Treasure Chest of these memories.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Robert S. Davis, J. E. Slaughter, Lois M. Tolen, Harry A. Swanson, Clarence Cayou

Representing the town of Stillwater in the affairs concerning our educational system is the duty of our school board. The members meet once a month with Mr. Vitalis, and attend to the business matters of the school.

Since Stillwater took advantage of the law that enabled us to become an independent school district, another school board member was needed, and Mr. A. R. Schwantes has been appointed until an election takes place.

The members of our competent board are Mr. J. E. Slaughter—president; Mrs. Lois M. Tolen—vice president; Mr. Harry A. Swanson—secretary; Mr. Clarence C. Cayou—treasurer; and Mr. Robert S. Davis and Mr. A. R. Schwantes—directors.

A. R. Schwantes

EARL L. VITALIS

SUPERINTENDENT

Although Mr. Vitalis's responsibilities as superintendent of schools are confined not only to the senior and junior high schools, his keen interest in school affairs, and his pleasing personality make our memories of these latter years more pleasant.

Presenting the various problems concerning our schools to the board of education, interviewing prospective teachers, and helping to maintain the high standards of all Stillwater schools are some of the many duties of Mr. Vitalis.

Aiding Mr. Vitalis in his many tasks is Mrs. Joyce LaBore. Her efficiency and neatness make the superintendent's office a welcome and cheerful place. Because of Mrs. LaBore's ready smile and willingness to help, school seems much more enjoyable.

MRS. JOYCE LaBORE, Secretary

MYRON C. MYERS

PRINCIPAL

As principal of S.H.S., Mr. Myers maintains the discipline and order that make our school more enjoyable and more profitable. His friendliness and understanding attitude have helped many of us over the hurdles that we have faced as students.

Among his many duties are helping the student council formulate its policies, giving advice to individual scholars, and maintaining a school of which we all can be proud.

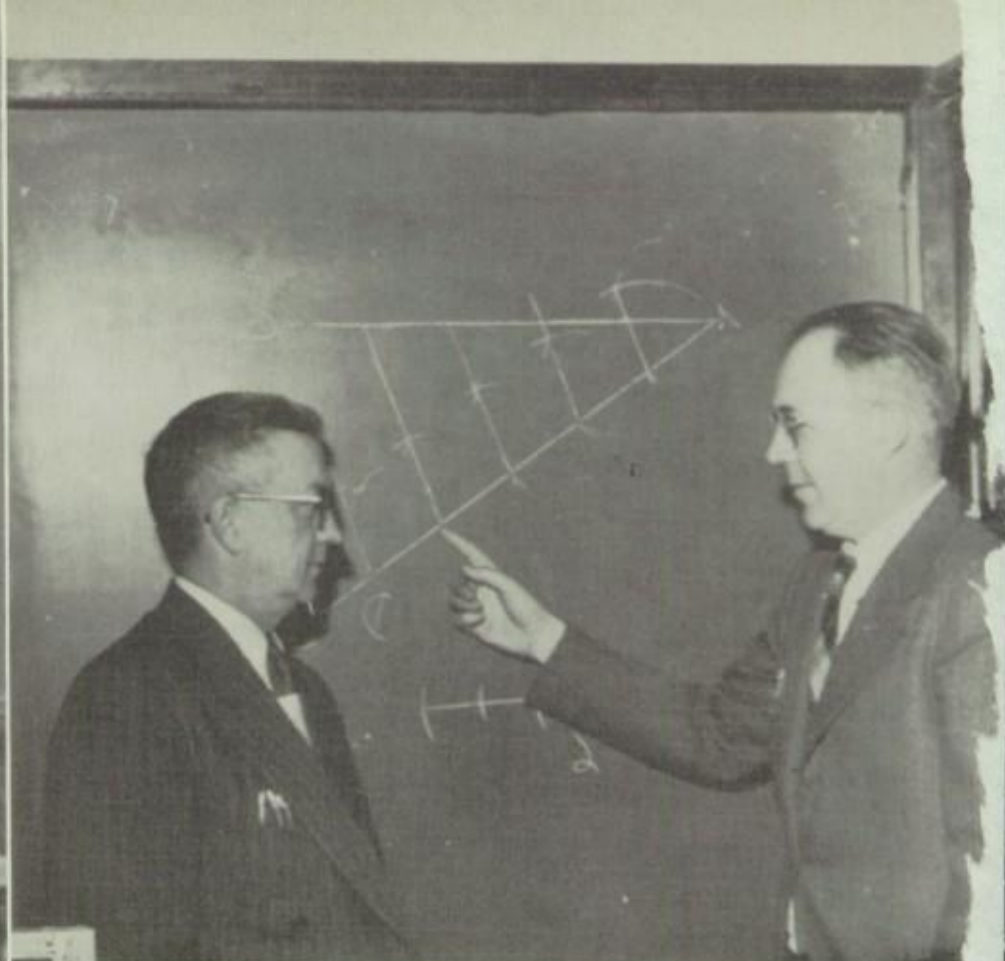

Did you find a pair of green mittens? Could I have some absence slips? Will you sign my pass? Who answers all of these many daily inquiries? Why of course, it's Miss Carlson, more commonly known as Marion. Her more-than-active interest in school affairs and her friendliness towards all make us really appreciate the fact that being secretary for our senior high school is one big job.

SENIORS

Back: Benjamin Welshons—Class Council; Ronald Schad—Class Council. Front: James Cerello—President; Patricia Massicotte—Treasurer; Carol Steindorff—Secretary; Lyle Elmquist—Vice-President.

Looking back on the last three years, it seems hard to believe that we seniors have spent our last year in SHS. No longer can we visit with friends at our lockers, try to get up or down the third floor stairs in three minutes, or wait for the bell to ring at 3:36. When we entered this school, the halls seemed barren; but now that graduation is here, the same halls seem so friendly that we are reluctant to leave.

Winning the one-act play contest, having fun at the "Farmyard Frolic," enjoying ourselves at a roller skating party, and getting used to our new surroundings occupied most of the time in our sophomore year.

As juniors, we no longer trod in unfamiliar halls; therefore we took a more active interest in our school affairs. For those of us who liked to use our vocal cords, there were both debate and declamation. We were also interested in journalism, as shown by the fact that all the associate editors of the Arrow and many of the staff members were our fellow classmates. Athletics took its share of the more able-bodied boys, and for those girls who also liked a little physical exercise, there was G. A. A. Two of the major events of our junior year were the class play, Uncertain Wings, which we enjoyed very much, and the annual prom, which lived up to its theme, "Moonlight and Roses."

Our senior year was probably the most eventful in our stay at SHS. As before, we showed ability in athletics, speech, dramatics, music, and in the editing of the three publications. Homecoming, the class play—The Great Big Doorstep, senior crazy day, the class picnic, and finally, graduation were some of the highlights of our last year in senior high.

No longer shall we enjoy the opportunities or fellowship we have had here in school, but we know that as we go on our way through life, the events of these years will always find a place in our "treasure chest of memories."

Helen Hansen—Valedictorian

Joyce Lindell—Salutatorian

HONOR ROLL

A friendly smile, cheerful greeting, lots of ambition, and initiative are only a few of the admirable characteristics of the valedictorian of 1950, Helen Hansen.

Three years of debate have qualified her for membership in the National Forensic League. In addition to this, Helen was a member of the choir, Junior Academy of Science, Y-Teens, and also took part in declamation work. This year the Kab staff claimed her as write-up editor.

It is a student like Helen that everyone likes to see take the "top honors" in our graduating class.

Taking second highest honors in the graduating class of 1950 is Joyce Lindell.

Joyce not only ranks scholastically but finds time to work with various extra curricular activities. She is known for doing things quickly and efficiently; therefore, she is called upon to do many typing jobs. Choir, G.A.A., Chemistry Club, and Junior Academy of Science, plus being a member of the Arrow Staff are part of Joyce's activities.

JUNIORS

We juniors, no longer to be classed as timid sophomores, and not yet ready to reach the realms of the seniors, returned to school last fall full of high spirits, ready and willing to assume the responsibilities left to us by the juniors of the previous year. Many newcomers joined our ranks and they also have taken an active part in our various school functions.

Ten junior boys made the football "A" squad and those who were on the "B" squad showed that by next year they will be ready and able to fill any vacancies left by the seniors. Basketball took its share of juniors as six of our cagers earned a place on the "A" squad. Golf, baseball, and track also claimed the interests of many juniors, not only of those who participated but also of the onlookers.

For many junior girls Tuesday night was a big day of the week, for it was then that they could exercise their muscles in G.A.A.

The class of '51 showed great promise in journalism. Every sixth period found many of us in the Arrow office, where we did such things as working on the feature page, reporting on the last basketball game, rewriting articles, typing the finished product, or doing any of the various things that must be done in a newspaper office. The Kab and Tusitala also found a place for many of our future journalists.

Dramatics haven't been neglected by the juniors. As sophies we won the one-act play contest with our entry, "The Greener Grass." This year we also entered the contest and our play, "Box and Cox," showed that we had acting talent in our class.

Chorus and band opened their arms to our musicians. Solo positions in both activities were partially filled by juniors. We also took an active part in debate and declamation.

All these activities have been eagerly entered into by our class and as seniors we shall endeavor to do even more things of which we can be proud.

SOPHOMORES

Coming into SHS life was an exciting and amazing adventure for the sophies. We didn't stay aghast long, for curiosity quickly overcame our shyness, and we soon became acquainted with the various fields of activity in our new school life.

Last fall many young grid stars came out for long, hard practice hours; then, when school started, the "B" squad took its share of excited and ambitious new-comers. The season was hard for these football men, for the juniors and seniors were out to put us in our place; but a few made the grade and showed that they were here to stay. Basketball captured more of our athletes as three sophomore cagers made the "A" squad. Six up-and-coming boys put in their bid for "B" squad competition.

To show their athletic ability, the girls turned out for G.A.A. A few bumps and bruises were produced when they participated in such sports as volleyball and basketball, but no girl would quit or give up the fun that G.A.A. gave them.

The sophies were eager for dramatics. Many turned up in Mrs. Kelley's room to try out for "The Happy Journey," which was our choice for the Thespian Drama Night Contest. The acting done by the cast captured first place among the three entries.

The Arrow also saw some good sophomore talent as the list of sophie hopefuls in news and feature writing grew quite long.

We showed our initiative by securing the most P.T.A. memberships, and this enabled us to have a party at the expense of the P.T.A. We chose February 10 as the date, and everyone had a gay time.

After a year of excitement and adventure in senior high, we are ready and willing to display our other sundry talents to the upper-classmen; we are prepared to settle down for the two promising years that are yet to follow.

Democracy in Action

Under the capable direction of James Vedder, the Student Council started the year with its first big project, the selection of committee chairmen for the coming year.

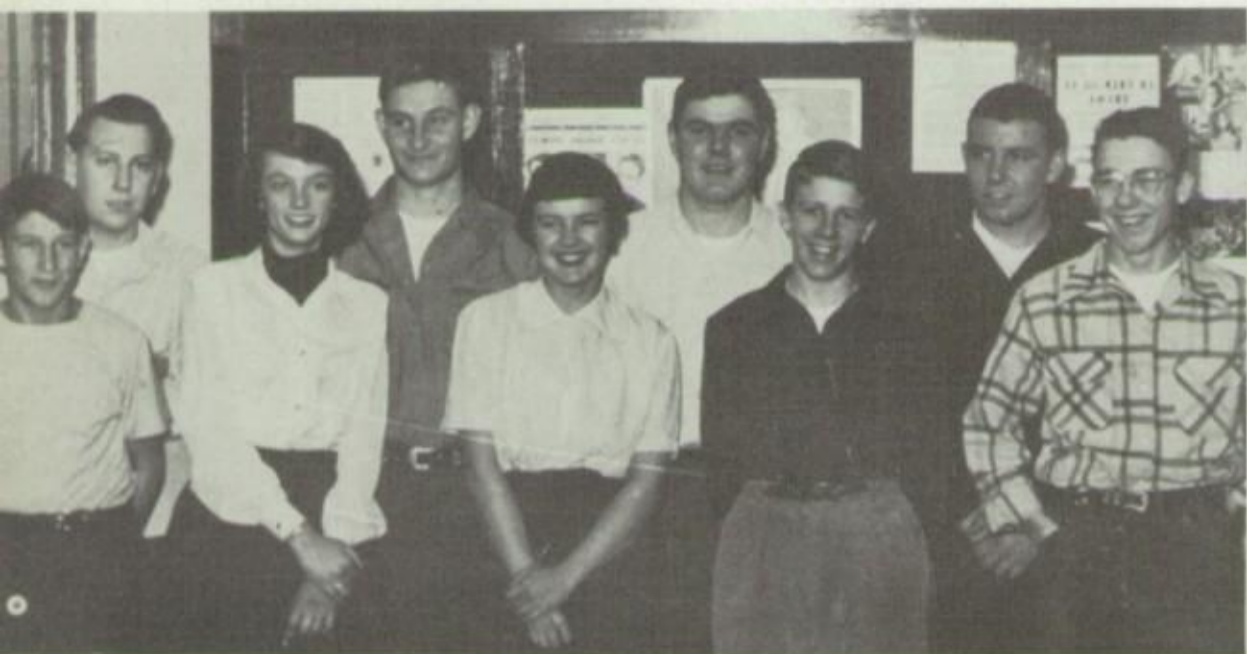

The council's meeting once a week, or more often if required, was not in vain. Let's briefly review some of the accomplishments of our council. Do you remember our successful Homecoming, the large audience at the Christmas Pageant, the gaily decorated halls at Christmas, and student staff day? These and many more can be mainly attributed to the efforts of our student council. Another big project was the sale of pencils by the council for the students' convenience.

Probably the most anxiously awaited day was student staff day. This was the day that we students shone as teachers, and Jim, with his capable secretary Jean Steffen, took over the operation of the school.

All in all, with the co-operation of Mr. Myers, the student council has had a very worthwhile and successful year.

James Vedder and Glenice Jordahl confer with Mr. Myers, the council adviser, about an amendment to the constitution.

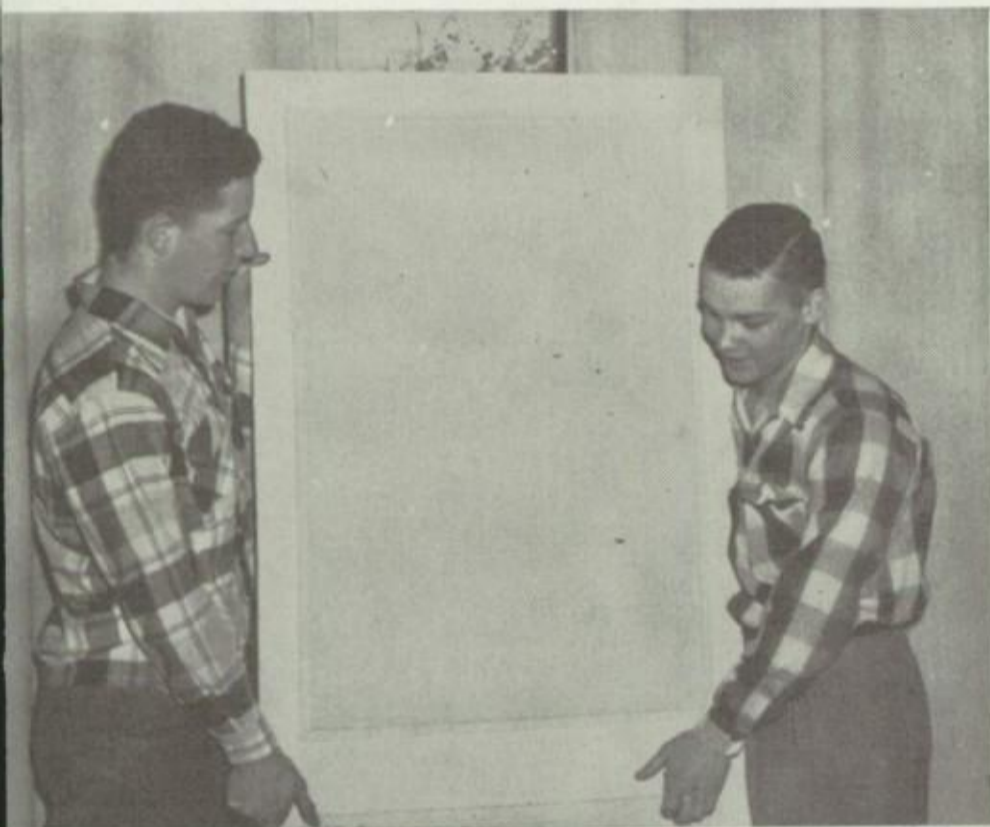

Standing Committees . . .

... chosen by Student Council ...

*... keep our school
running smoothly*

Top: Dance Committee—These four make sure there are open dates for all the dances throughout the year. Dick Novetzke, Sally Johnson (chairman), Janet North, and David Lindquist. Middle: The Welfare Committee is to send cards to those students who are ill over a long period of time, or in any case of bereavement. The members represent the senior, junior, and sophomore classes respectively: Lois Moelter (chairman), Beverly Thompson, and Carol Barker. Bottom Left: Assembly Committee—Choosing the dates for assemblies and announcing them is the duty of this committee: Nancy Steinmetz (chairman), Tom Eddy, Patricia Peterson, Peter Miller, and Gretchen Giesen. Bottom Right: Canteen Committee—The canteen's success depends upon the work done by these students. Back: Jerry Thiebert, Roy Richardson, Robert McGarry, Bruce McManus, and Anne Sampair. Front: Patricia Peterson, Helen Johnson, Mary Ellen Kilkelly (chairman), Joyce Erickson, and Carol Nielsen.

Teachers for a Day

Top: Ronald Schad, our physicist of the sixth hour physics class, teaches his fellow students about the principles of a dry cell. Middle: King Student Teacher of the Day in world history, Bruce McManus, looks dumbfounded at a question brought up by a fellow pupil. Middle Left: Principal Jim Vedder dictates the business of the day to his office secretary, Jean Steffen. Middle Right: Under the careful eye of Alice Barnholdt, the band goes through a number. Bottom Left: Gail Schwantes asks a question of teacher Hugh Barclay in a U.S. History class. Bottom Right: Carol Nielsen seems pleased with the co-operation of her typing class.

Katherine Reichkitzer, Shirley Huff, JoAnn Cronk, Gloria Plaster, Alice Barnholdt, Donald Reichkitzer, Arnold Schneider, Lolla Rice, Joan Jackson. Front: Joanne Moulton, Joanne McGonigal, JoAnne

OUR SHS BAND

An essential part of school life with its neat uniforms and excellent music is our SHS Band under the inspired leadership of Mr. George Regis. A major part of every pep fest, the band also played for all home football and basketball games, class plays, assemblies, and other school activities.

"The Little Red School House," Santa's arrival at Christmas, and the winter "Ice Cream Social" claimed performances by our high school musicians.

For the District Contest at Mahtomedi the selection chosen was "The Jolly Robbers Overture." The brass sextet and solos by Eleanor Harvey—flute, Ervin Roten-berry—sousaphone, Kay Reichkitzer—alto saxophone, Alice Barnholdt—baritone, Joanne Moulton—piano were also entered.

Long hours of practice under Director Regis' baton made the spring concert a brilliant success.

The band will be hard hit with the graduation of eleven seniors. Their familiar faces have been the mainstay in the organization for the past few years. To fill these vacancies a promising group of 60 young musicians was started this year. These students are working eagerly to eventually fill in the ranks of the SHS Band.

Schaffer, Eleanor Harvey, Reta Thelen, Robert Flotten, Virginia Schrade, Donna Sandquist, Willard Albertson.

MIXED CHORUS

Under the capable direction of Miss Ann Saugstad, the vocal music department has built up a fine reputation. Everyone at SHS likes to sing and when the call for try-outs was given, the response was overwhelming. After the final testing, about eighty students found places in Mixed Chorus, Boys' Glee Club, Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Sextet, Girls' Sextet, and Mixed Octet.

The first date on the busy calendar was an assembly, an interesting and varied program by all vocal groups. The traditional Christmas Pageant, a beautiful and artistic performance, highlighted that season of the year. Groups contributed frequently to local public functions, such as, The World Day of Prayer, at which time the Girls' Glee Club sang.

The major event of the year was the colorful operetta,

"A Waltz Dream" by Oscar Strauss. With Miss Saugstad directing the musical score and Miss Cecilia Marquardt, the libretto, the group turned out a superb performance.

Members of the cast were John Westphal, Audrey Bruette, Robert Flotten, Tim Kilty, Gerry Lindbloom, Joyce Erickson, Paul Gillis, Joyce Scullen, Kenneth Kaiser, David Kelley, Ronald Schad, Tom Eddy, Joanne Bauer, and Phyllis Gowan. Joanne Moulton and Mary Swanson were the accompanists; Joanne Thenn, student director; Tom Eddy, scenery chairman; Anne Sampair, ticket chairman.

The Spring Concert, Baccalaureate, and Commencement completed a very successful year in vocal music.

This year marks the turn of the half century; therefore, it will be most appropriate to look back into the history of the "Tusitala."

The "Tus" was first initiated about twenty-five years ago by the principal to encourage the students in literary creations.

The title, "Tusitala," meaning "teller of tales" was the appellation endowed upon Robert Louis Stevenson by the natives of Samoa Island where he spent the last days of his life.

Each year the students of the senior high school have a chance to display their literary talents by contributing poems, stories, and essays for publication in the "Tus."

TUSITALA

To carry out the theme, the title chosen was "In The Good Old Days." The cover and illustrations blend in well with the theme.

The success of the "Tusitala's" issuance is due to the dynamic advisership of Miss Irene Hedeberg. Encouragement in literary creation, given to students by the English department, has greatly enriched the publication.

Staff members for the 1950 "Tusitala" are as follows: senior editors, Stephanie Swenson and Dick Estelle; junior editors, Joyce Erickson and Audrey Bruette; sophomore editor, Bonnie Newman. Art editor is Jim Cerello, whose staff is Joanne McGonigal, Joanne Thenn, Terry Crombie, Jacqueline Frye, Susan Rowland, and Arlene Moris. The business staff, whose manager is Carleton Olson, includes, Bill Lohmeier, Tim Kilty, Hugh Barclay, Roger Moulton and David Kelley.

The varied speech activities offered at SHS are open to all who wish to take part. This year marked one of the largest groups ever to take advantage of this opportunity. An outstanding coaching staff, headed by Miss June Denison, included Mrs. Gower, Miss Lovgren, and Mr. Ellingson.

At the sub-district and district declamation contests held at South St. Paul on March 13, Stillwater was ably represented by 17 members of the speech department. Eight students, Gail Schwantes, Pat Jewell, Alice Barnholdt, Eugene Mechelke, Joanne Moulton, Willard Albertson, Joanne Thenn, and Joyce Lindell, received an average above 5 points which enabled them to go on to the district finals. Joyce Lindell and Joanne Thenn received ratings of excellent. Gail Schwantes received a superior rating for her humorous selection entitled, "Gertrude, the Governess." Gail's superior rating entitled her to go to the regional contest at Hastings.

Under the careful guidance of Mr. Ellingson, the Stillwater High debate team finished a successful year with a record of 12 wins out of 24 debates, at tournaments held at Eau Claire, Hastings, and White Bear. This season was climaxed with the team's appearance at the regional at White Bear, where they finished in third place.

The Great Big Doorstep

Grass Margin, Louisiana, a small, typical Southern town, was the scene of this year's Senior Class Play, "The Great Big Doorstep," by Francis Goodrich and Albert Hackett.

The plot centers around the Crochets, a poor but ambitious family. Their home, a delapidated shack, was adorned with a splendid white doorstep. Commodore Crochet, his wife, and their five children are dissatisfied with their home, and want a house to go with their doorstep. However, the Commodore being lazy, does not succeed in getting one for his family, nor does his brother Dewey who attempts to help them. It is Mrs. Crochet who finally earns enough money by selling water lily bulbs to a big-city florist, Mrs. Beaumont Crochet, who turns out to be a distant relative.

Miss June Denison did a superb job in directing this, one of the most successful productions in recent years.

Uncertain Wings

"Pop" Riley, the friendly proprietor of a small town Malt Shop, was the center of attraction in the Junior Class Play, "Uncertain Wings," by Robert Hill and Floyd Crutchfield.

Margaret, the most sophisticated of the teen-agers who used the Malt Shop as a meeting place, is misunderstood by her friends until they discover that a play she has written became a success.

Humor was provided by Tubby, who brought her many troubles to the Malt Shop for discussion.

Student director was Donna Sandquist. Willard Albertson was in charge of scenery and Helen Hansen, properties. Jean Steffen was chairman of publicity with Pat Peterson on tickets. Sally Johnson, Beverly Thomas and Loreda Heaney took care of make-up, and art work was done by JoAnne Bauer, Loreda Heaney and JoAnne McGonigal.

Committee Chairmen: Sally Johnson, make-up; Jean Steffen, publicity; Helen Hansen, properties; Pat Peterson, tickets.

Student directors, Pat Jewell and Donna Sandquist, get advice from Miss Denison, the director of both class plays.

Cast, "Uncertain Wings": Bernice Nielsen, Dolly; Jim Cerello, "Pop"; Teddy Holmes, Jerry; Terry Crombie, Tyler; Barbara Benson, Tubby; Joanne Anderson, Alice; Pat Massicotte, Ethel; Carleton Olson, Jack; Stephanie

RELATED OCCUPATIONS

Did you ever try to do two things at once? A group of 33 SHS seniors who take Related Occupations are doing just that. These ambitious students attend school in the morning and then work at their respective jobs in the afternoon. In this way they are able to combine their formal education with practical experience.

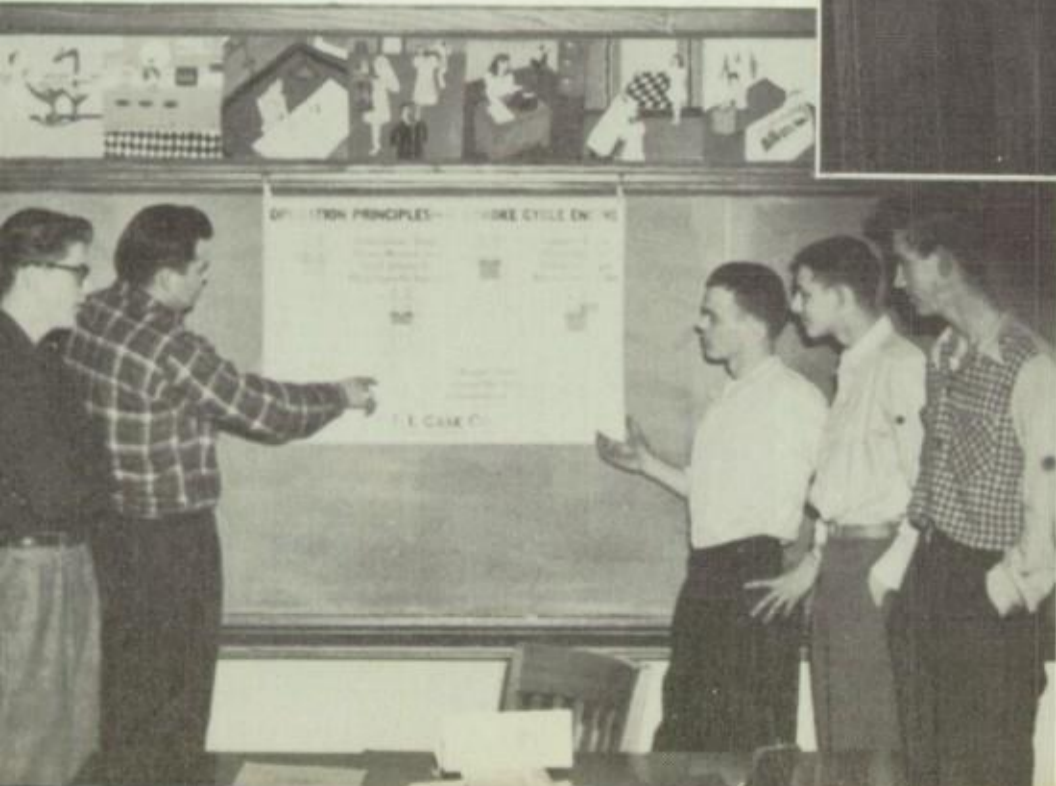

Under the expert guidance of their coordinator, Mr. Jacobson, the classes learn such useful information as what kind of insurance to buy, how to apply for a job, where their income tax deduction goes, and how to manage their money. Any personal problems that may arise in respect to a student's job are handled by Mr. Jacobson, who devotes about two hours a week to each individual.

Business heads of tomorrow. Related students—James Schmidt, Warren Utecht, Roy Lundstrom, Lawrence Peterson, Charles Ciesman, and Gerald Thompson—bend studiously over their insurance policies.

Studying business forms are Robert Bardon, Bernard Nadeau, Robert Jensen, Savid Sheivik, and Roger Knapp.

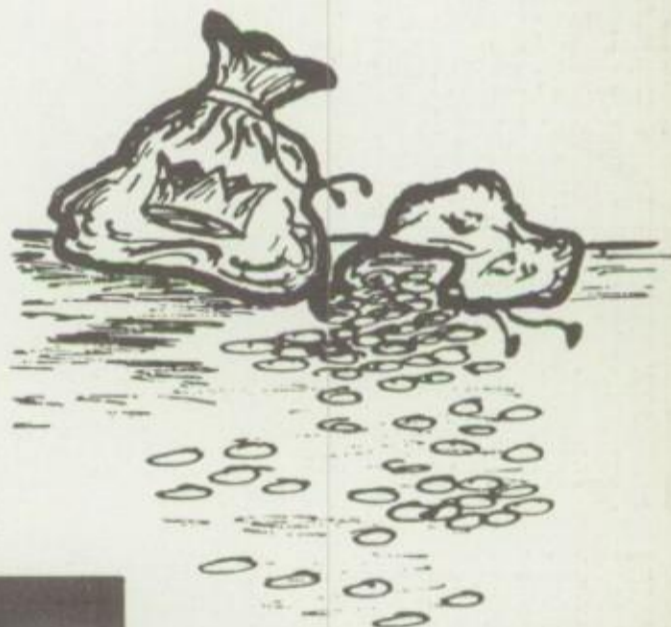

Learning the operating principles of a stroke cycle engine are David Skeivik, Roger Knapp, John McDonald, Robert Nygren, and Donald Berg.

PONIES OF 1949

Co-Captain Ronald Schadt

Co-Captain Lyle Elmquist

The Stillwater Ponies, who started with a light and inexperienced team, ended the season with a record of two wins and six losses. Although the Ponies of 1949 had a little trouble, next year's team will be one to watch.

Under the direction of their new coach, Carl Arnold, the Ponies started the season off with a bang by winning over St. Paul Humboldt, 26-0. Touchdowns were divided evenly between Lyle Elmquist and Ken Wieden, as they each scored twice. Dick Case kicked two extra points.

From the opening gun until the last minutes of the contest between Blake and the Ponies, Blake took command of this game. By making four touchdowns, Blake totaled enough points to win by a sizable margin of 25-0.

The Ponies showed much improvement in the game with Anoka, but the Tornadoes proved their worth by winning, 9-0.

Stillwater.....	26	Humboldt	0
Stillwater.....	0	Blake	25
Stillwater.....	0	Anoka	9
Stillwater.....	20	Hudson	12
Stillwater.....	0	Columbia Heights.....	13
Stillwater.....	0	South St. Paul	20
Stillwater.....	0	White Bear	15
Stillwater.....	7	Hastings	33

After traveling to Hudson, our team returned home with a convincing 20-12 victory. The game was played on a wet field which prevented the Ponies from taking to the air. As the result of a long run, Jack Junker scored the first touchdown and "Casey" kicked the extra point. By running 28 yards Jack carried the ball over the goal line once more. John Mariana scored the final touchdown and once again Dick Case made the kick.

Numerous penalties hampered both teams as the Ponies and the Heighters met on our gridiron. Two touchdowns in the second quarter gave Columbia Heights a sure victory as they won by a score of 13-0.

The gala event of Homecoming was given a setback as the South St. Paul Packers rolled up a 20-0 victory.

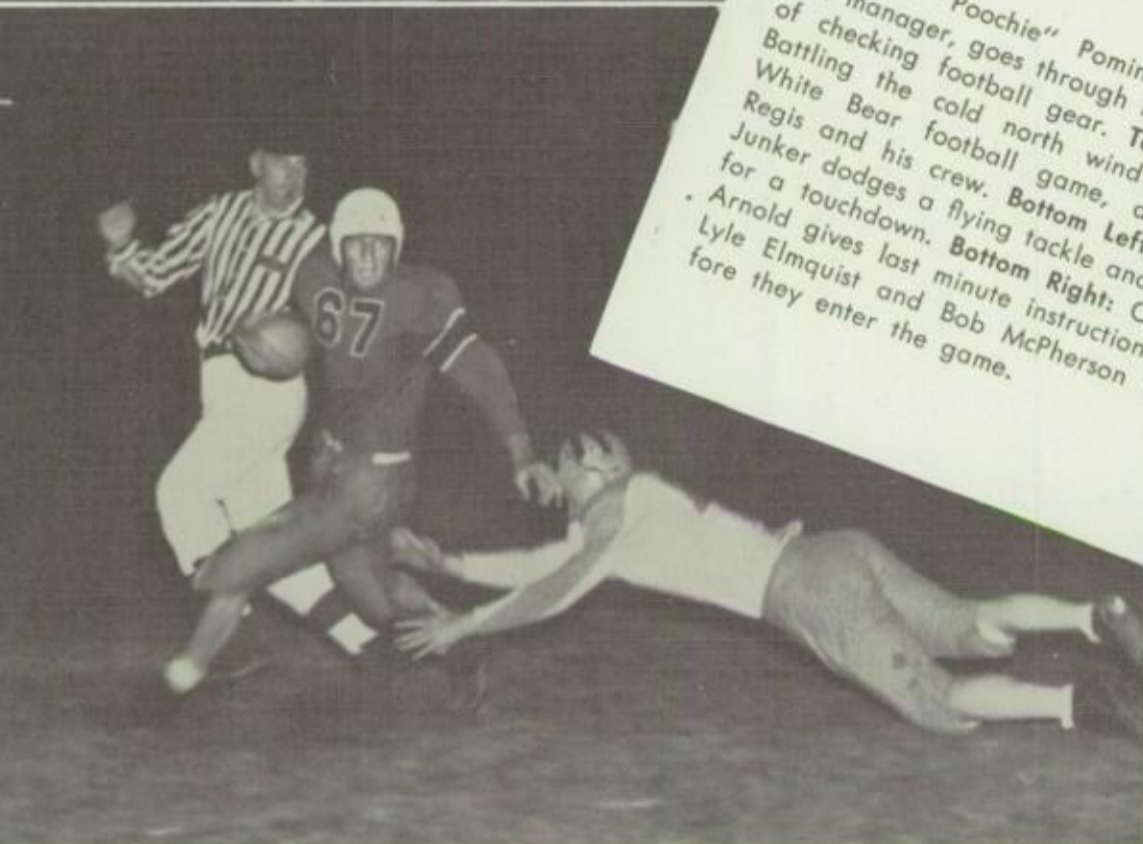

The opening minutes of the game between the Ponies and the Bears predicted that this game was to be a real battle, but as the cold weather and the first snow of the season dampened the enthusiasm of both the spectators and the players, things slowed down. At the final gun the score was 15-0 for White Bear.

Ending the season, the team traveled to Hastings, only to be defeated by the Raiders, 33-7. John Mariana made the touchdown for Stillwater and Dick Case came into the game to make the conversion good.

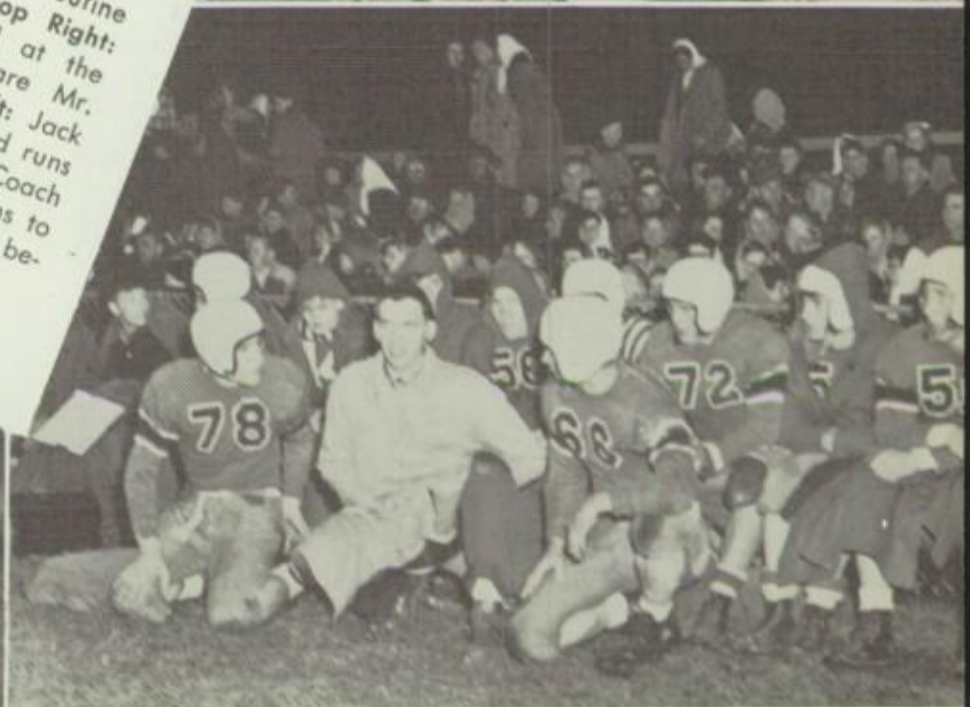

Scoring honors were almost evenly divided. Lyle Elmquist, Ken Wieden, Jack Junker, and John Mariana scored two touchdowns apiece for a total of 48 points. Dick Case, with his educated toe, accounted for the 5 extra points.

The sportsmanship and determination shown by the team, proved that the Ponies of 1949 were truly good athletes.

Suffering a setback in the season's opener as Johnson of St. Paul defeated the Ponies by one point, 27-26, the hoopsters, under the leadership of team Captain Harry Barnholdt, bounced back to take games from Northfield and Hastings by impressive scores.

In conference play, Anoka and White Bear were jinxes for the Ponies who lost two games to each team; however, the cagers broke even with Hastings and South St. Paul while defeating Columbia Heights on two occasions.

In the upset of the season, the Ponies dumped South St. Paul, 45-43, as Barnholdt sank a 50-foot shot from mid-court. This was the first of three consecutive close-margin wins for the Ponies. Sparked by Jack Junker they also hurdled Columbia Heights and Northfield in the closing seconds of each game.

In District 14 tournament, Stillwater outclassed White Bear in the opening game, 41-27. In the second round Farmington upset the Ponies, 33-32, to eliminate Stillwater from the tournament and put an end to the basketball season.

Case obtained a berth on the All-District Team. Captain Bud Barnholdt finished third in the Suburban Conference scoring race with an average of 13.7 points per game. He also achieved the honor of being named on the All-Suburban Conference Team.

Linksman Win District Title

The year 1949 brought about the revival of competitive golf at Stillwater after a lapse of nine years because of the war. The golf team, which was made up entirely of sophomores and juniors, was ably coached by Mr. Arthur Hoblit.

The district and suburban matches were held simultaneously at Anoka. The District title went to the Ponies who had a score of 525, but Anoka beat the Ponies in the Suburban Conference by a score of 508 to 536.

TRACK

District Champs

With the fresh spring air to set one's blood atingle, the members of the 1949 track team started their season, and a fine season it was! A large number of enthusiastic veterans and sophomores elected John Ulrich as their captain. The season got off to a good start with a victory over Murray. In the Carleton relays, the team placed fifth in the Class M division, and then later moved on to take the Suburban crown by upsetting a favored Anoka squad in the Suburban meet. In the St. Thomas relays, the squad captured second in their class and then returned again to St. Thomas for the district meet where they won the District 14 championship. Those members of the squad moved on to the regional meet, where they took second place, being surpassed only by the powerful Anoka squad. Those who qualified for the state meet were the 880 relay team: Lyle Elmquist, Dick Barstow, John Ulrich, and Ken Wieden; Wally Kurth in the half-mile; and Ken Wieden in the 220 yard dash.

Wieden and Elmquist finish a close one-two in the Suburban century at St. Thomas.

G.A.A.

On Tuesday when screams of excitement issue from the gym, one can be sure that the "girl athletes" of S.H.S. are at play. This year approximately one hundred girls have joined in exciting games of speedball, basketball, volleyball, softball, bowling, or some other sport. Each faithful member has worked hard for awards based on the new point system set up by Miss Vogelpohl.

The officers of G.A.A. are Carol Nielsen, president; Nena Amundson, vice-president; Floreen Fazendin, secretary; and Patricia Buckley, treasurer. Their "right hand men" are Joyce Lindell, points manager; Bernice Nielsen, bowling manager; Katherine Klein, volleyball manager; Lolla Rice, basketball manager; Alice Barnholdt, softball manager; Susan Johnson, social committee chairman; and Patricia Jewell, publicity committee chairman.

The bowling tournament, a G.A.A. assembly, Splash Party, the annual Smorgasbord, our "most valuable senior award," and the Valentine Party have been some of the highlights of the 1949-1950 season.
